Sir,

I have the honour to invite your kind attention to the above subject and state that the suit has been disposed of by the Joint First Class Sub-Judge,Dharwar, on 25-8-1941 . I would humbly, submit that the pleader's fees taxed by the court in this case amount -ing to Rs.24-9-9 only are quite insufficient, having regard to the number of days the hearing of the suit occupied, and the consequent additional work that I had to do.

I would, therefore, submit that Government may be pleased to sanction payment of enhanced pleader's fees of Rs.80/- to me, exclusive of the amount of taxed fees.

A certificate of the court testifying to the number of days on which the case was heard, has been enclosed herewith for favour of perusal. Uncertified copies of the judgment and decree have been separately submitted with this No. on

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Assistant Government Pleader.

Dharwar 15th October 1941.

Forwarded with compliments:-

2. Mr.Malapur, the Assistant Government Pleader, has worked with great deligence and care in this case which depended mainly upon oral evidence. We have succeeded herein, and as the certificate of the Joint F.C. Sub-Judge, shows, it was heard on no less than 8 days.

I should, therefore, submit that Mr.Malapur's request for granting him additional fees herein, may favourably be considered.

District Government Pleader.

Subject:-Sanction of enhanced fees in Sessions Case No.39 of 1941.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit as under:-

That Sessions Case No.39 of 1941 (Imperator Vs. Basappa Malkappa Gowli) under Section 302 of the Indian Penal Code, was tried from the 8th December 1941, up to the 6th January 1942, except for the X'mas holidays; the trial occupied 16 days in all. The accused has been convicted of murder and is sentenced to death by the learned Sessions Judge, on the 12th January 1942.

The case was a fairly complicated one, as could be seen from the fact that the accused's movements extended over different places in the three Provinces of Madras, Mysore and Bombay. The number of witnesses examined during the course of trial is 36. I should submit that this case required greater exertion and work.

I would request, therefore, that enhanced fees at the rate of Rs.40/- per day, may kindly be sanctioned to me in this case.

A copy of the judgment has been enclosed herewith for favour of perusal. I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

B B Sawkar

Public Prosecutor.

Respectfully submitted through the Sessions Judge, Dharwar:-
